Thanksgiving Day

*Oh yet another "perfect" Thanksgiving Day in Hidden Valley
Yet everyday is perfect for our Thanksgiving rally
Rain, frost and sun we've had in days of past
Yet it is the land and friendships that last.
Some friends and neighbors have come and gone
Some children grown and moved beyond.
Yet on this day let's say thanks
For giving us yet another chance
To appreciate the land and its beauty
Reminding us that preserving it is our duty.
